

2024 Fall Credentialing Course Opportunities

(updated 09/19/2024jjw)

There may be other courses offered through specific conferences or AFMEI/JWSF schools. If you have any questions, you may connect with the embedded links provided below or contact us at (317) 616-4801 or credentialing@fmcusa.org or visit <https://leadership.fmcusa.org/courses>

Please note there are registration dates and specific course dates for some courses.

LMC-Level Content Areas

At the Local Ministerial Candidate level, satisfactory evidence of mastery in the following content areas will be required:

The Free Methodist Way	Basic Christian Doctrine
History and Polity of the Free Methodist Church	Wesleyan Theology

These are the ideal content areas for candidates to explore and master early in the credentialing process. They help with understanding and alignment of Christian ministry within the Wesleyan Holiness movement, particularly the Free Methodist Church.

CMC-Level Content Areas

At the Conference Ministerial Candidate level, satisfactory evidence of mastery in the above LMC-level and the following content areas are required:

Old Testament Survey*	New Testament Survey*	Systematic Theology	Inductive Bible Study/Hermeneutics
Old Testament Elective (i.e., book of the Bible)	New Testament Elective (i.e., book of the Bible)	Personal Formation and Self Care*	Homiletics*
Shepherding, Leadership, and Church Administration*	Congregational Spiritual Formation and Pastoral Care*	Community Engagement, Evangelism, and Justice*	Cross-Cultural Experience*

These are content areas related to the Outcomes-Based Ordination process. Candidates who explore and master these content areas, ideally will display significant evidence of the 15 outcomes in the Heart, Head, & Hands categories. Proviso: These are standards. Where the MEG Board needs to determine equivalency to satisfy these standards, they have the authority and flexibility to do so.

Consecrated Deacon Candidates ideally show mastery in Bible and two determined Practical Theology areas*

Our workshops cover topics such as:

- Understanding the implications of congregational trauma on the process of hiring a new pastor
- Best congregational care practices following the removal of a pastor
- Shepherding those who have experienced spiritual abuse or religious trauma

“Becoming a Trauma Informed Church: 101”

Free Methodist Chaplaincy is a specific calling to represent the Free Methodist Church – USA in specialized ministry settings as an extension of the denomination and the chaplain’s ordaining conference.

“Introduction to Chaplaincy” is an online course developed by the FM Chaplains Association and offered by The Center for Pastoral Formation FMCUSA to help students:

1. Review the various domains of chaplaincy.
2. Identify the education requirements & certifications required to serve in various chaplain domains.
3. Define key concepts in chaplaincy.
4. Comprehend the differences between the role of a chaplain & the role of a church pastor.
5. Understand how to minister to all people while maintaining the integrity of one’s own ordination & endorsement requirements.
